The PCNs were Walsall and Worcestershire - work done 2023-2024. All this work was done remotely in my own private time & weekends (non-NHS hours). I undertake Private Practice (PP) in the Priory Hospital, Circle Rehabilitation, Harborne Hospital and Midland Health clinic. All PP activities are in my own personal time and outside NHS working hours. I also share on calls for Circle in-patient rehabilitation ward remotely on an advisory role for General Internal Medicine (GIM) only with 3 other Consultants. I also do the same and admit ad-hoc patients in Harborne Hospitals and review them outside NHS working time and on non-NHS working weekends. These on calls are all outside NHS working times and after 5pm & weekends and they don't clash with my NHS on call days. These are clearly declared and approved in my yearly job plan. I am remunerated on a pro-rata basis. I have a plc EXEL Healthcare Ltd formed in 2010 where all my PP income go into. I am the Current Director since 2010-03-26. I receive PP payments from most insurance companies including BUPA, AXA, AVIVA, Vitality, Police HCS, Healtix etc. Baseltiger Ingelheim Ltd sponsored evening meeting 2023 Daiichi Sankyo pharmaceutical sponsored events in 2023 Eli Lilly sponsored educational GP talks 2024 - ongoing Amgen - planned GP educational talks on evening for 2024. Menarini Pharmaceutical sponsored evening educational talk x 2 in 2023. I do a one-day yearly regional medicine course - "Medicine for the acute take physician - all you wanted to know" - since 2019. This is RCP CPD accredited and well attended by trainees and Consultants from all over the Midlands. This course is run on a Friday when I am not working and I take a day for the day. The venue, catering, speaker fees and all other costs are stand sponsored by pharmaceutical companies and a nominal fees is also charged to delegates. I undertake ad-hoc pharmaceutical company sponsored educational talks/seminars/webinars for GPs and other allied HCP related to diabetes and endocrinology in my own private time outside normal NHS working hours. I also attend ad-hoc advisory board meetings for pharma companies in my own personal time. Amongst others, I have received honoraria for the above events from the following companies: AstraZeneca - £1000, Novo Nordisk Limited - £450 In April & Dec 2024 I was sponsored (flight & accommodation) by Wychem pharmaceuticals to do international talks in India on Diabetes - I had taken AL on both occasions. There was no specific honoraria offered for the talks. I have another international talk planned for 24 February 2026 in Kolkata India, sponsored (flight & accommodation) by Wychem pharmaceuticals - no honoraria has been offered and I have taken AL for this period. Within our Trust, I intermittently undertake additional clinical sessions for financial payment (typically additional oncalls to fill locum cover, waiting list initiatives and occasional private cases done at BMEC). I have also undertaken additional clinical sessions in our and other NHS trusts (a form of private practice) for which I am paid through RPI and BEST (agencies which act as intermediary to secure the contract for clinical work). My area of practice outside the Trust remains in Anaesthesia. I am Director of a company called 'MAYAKKAM LTD'. This is a company to which the revenue from most of my private practice in Anaesthesia is credited. The income from extra clinical sessions in the Trust is generally paid via PAYE. I am eligible to take Dividends from the company as also taxable other income. I am a Council member and Treasurer for British Ophthalmic Anaesthesia Society. Hence I am eligible for complimentary registration for BOAS conferences. I am also eligible for reimbursement of expenses relating to attending Council meetings as also the Conference (up to a max of £ 500).

For presenting my work, I received an honorarium. The nuclear medicine department has three SPECT/CT systems, supplied by Siemens Healthineers. The company has an arrangement with SWBH whereby they can bring potential new customers to see the systems in use. The company will pay the nuclear medicine department's radioisotope SWB Trust Charity fund, £900 for each opportunity. There is a signed written agreement in place. The money is used by nuclear medicine dept for purposes as allowed by the Charity rules hence we all indirectly benefit. This could be used for attendance at meetings, or team building, or to pay for equipment to use for research. I sometimes attending conference event organised by a professional body or professional society. The event is sponsored by various companies who pay the body/society for the ability to show their wares at a stand. The company offers delegates the opportunity to attend a lunch or dinner with them, which they pay for. They sometimes put on educational content for this meal. Attendance at the meal is an opportunity to meet other delegates and discuss profession and practice. Offers, we have something in common such as the same equipment. I estimate the value of the meal to be between £20 to £40. This will mean I do not need to claim subsistence for my food that day. I use a commonsense approach to attending, where I see benefit to my own education and the opportunity to learn from the company or the other delegates. Attendance would not affect my professional judgment. As they could be an actual or potential supplier or contractor then the hospitality is declared in line with NMC guidance. https://www.england.nhs.uk/wp-content/uploads/2017/09/col-gai-clinical-staff.pdf

I stopped private practice in BMI about 4yrs ago Ad hoc medical reports (Personal independence payments, DVLA, Occupational health) will be done. These are for my NHS patients and the nature of work is such that some will have to be done in working hours utilising information from NHS records. Payments are as per BMA and other statutory body recommendations and would total to single digit in a year. I very occasionally get asked and discerningly accepted to serve on advisory boards for international pharmaceutical companies and get paid on fair market value for the contributions. I can only recall having served on 2 such events so far in my career in SWBH (in excess of 15yrs). Although I get paid for the time, I do not have therefore any financial interests in the products of the said companies. Invited to present a talk to colleagues. Honorarium paid for the talk by pharmaceutical company. The talk was carried out in private time. No conflict with NHS duties. A box of chocolates from a patient When I do receive the occasional boxes of chocolates or wine bottle, I share it with my multi-professional team (OP nurses, CNS) as often they are a vote of thanks to the team. I have filled out ad hoc medical reports and have arranged for the payments to the Trust Charity (Lung Cancer fund) I do not handle the money so I have no financial interest and this work may well be done during working hours and often in conjunction with other AHPs There have been donations made to the SWBH Your Trust Charity by my patients. I have attended local charity events organised by my patients and carers, contributed to community awareness events. Donations have gone directly to established Trust charities and I am co-signatory to 2 such charities. Details can be obtained from the finance accounts dept. I attend professional conferences through sponsorship from pharmaceutical companies typically once or twice a year and when this is during working hours, study leave will be applied for. Increasingly a range of free webinars are made available which are usually non promotional and very educational in value On line attendance at European Resp Society Conference. Sponsored by GSK
