

The person that knows your child best - is you.
So if you detect deterioration -
you've got the right to ask for a rapid review.